

Sol Music Ensemble Releases Album

TEHRAN, May 26--An Iranian music band 'Sol Music Ensemble' has released its latest album called 'Creation'.

The album comprises of pieces from Hayden, Bach, Beethoven, Satie, Khachaturian, Gabrieli, Boccherini, Alaskarov, Purcell, Amirov and Korsakov.

The band includes Bahman Mahabadi, Pourya Keshavarz, Houman Akhtari and Hasti Bahrami on the violin, Nahid Abtahi on the guitar as well as Mehrshad Hakim Shafaei on the alto.

Public relations officer of the group Homa Sadr Arhami said that the earlier album of the Sol Music Ensemble containing pieces by great composers of classic musicians which was released eight years ago received extensive public acclamation.

The 'Creation' is the sixth album by the group which is conducted by Bahman Mahabadi. Critics hailed the album as a great achievement in view of the hard work put in by the musicians. Observers have acclaimed the great talent which the musicians have displayed as 'a sense of genius'.

Selection of the songs, special performance of both the players and the conductor have helped to produce this unique and rare work, said the daily. Sol Music Ensemble has been active in holding concerts in the past 20 years. It refrained from copying the works of others, Sadr Arhami said.

She said that the group expects moral and material support it deserves from cultural officials.
